1. Introduction

Today we can see that woman can participate in all the field of work. She can work more efficiently than man. She can work harder than man. She works like a machine and behave like a friend. She fulfills all the acceptance towards her. Whenever we can see that she is climbing up, developing herself, it is also true that she is being manipulated by her caliginous or her family or her boss or also by her children. In this situation there is only one reason is there, that her nature of presenting herself behind another one.

After all she is the wonderful creation of God. She has all mighty power given by God she is Rather Natural. A woman is more sufficient in all the fields she chooses. We can remember some name like Sunita Williams, Chanda kochar, Arundhanti Bhattachary, Indira Gandhi, Sania Mirja etc.... They all are very powerful woman. When topic of woman empowerment is being discussed, we all appreciate I women who are succeed. We always talk about them who were on top floor but never see on the bottom.

Where we are talking about the development of woman, we can talk very well but on the other side the woman is being manipulated by us. She is suffering from very serious injury. When the women is housewife, there is no respect for her work and the mentality is that, "She born for doing house hold work/' She has to care for each and every family member but none cares for her.

When this woman is doing job, she has to work from morning to night. She has to work with eight hands, two legs and one mind. In this case she is working with multitask. In this situation she has some hurdle in carrier. Here researcher has tried to find the main hurdle from which a women is suffering in her carrier.
